CHECKLIST

Our internal selection committee reviews each application very carefully. Some of the questions we ask ourselves during the review process are but not limited to:

- How well thought out is the business concept?
- Is the business proposal well written and does it look professional?
- How much has been invested in the company?
- Does the company have a website? If so, does it look professional?
- Do you have a three year financial projection for your company?
- Will this company be successful?
